It is predicted that Frank James is not far from St. Joe, and that it will not be long before he will create a profound sensation by being the avenger of his brother's death.

It is said that Jesse James's business enabled him to be buried in a five hundred dollar coffin. But not only this, but the railways whose trains he had robbed and whose passengers and conductors he had killed, offered the James family all the courtesies they could tender to a high official.

A woman has been arrested at Eau Claire for complicity in the jail delivery of last Monday, in that city, when eight prisoners escaped. It appears that she sent to St. Paul for the tools, which were given to her husband, who was one of the prisoners, with which he sawed out. Two of those who escaped have been recaptured.

The State Journal has the figures to show that the total log crop of the season in the basin of the Wisconsin river, above Grand Rapids, is 213,000,000 feet. Merrill will saw about 50,000,000 of this amount, Wausau 100,000,000 and Stevens Point 6,000,000. There will be an early drive and a long, active sawing season throughout the Wisconsin lumber regions.

The New York Sun, which hasn't said a good word of a Republican for years, comes out sounding the praise of President Arthur for vetoing the Chinese bill. This is one of the strangest things of the day, and is entitled to wide circulation. After giving some of the points favoring the veto, the Sun says: "But he saw that American principles were involved which had been in vogue for a century, and if either party should gain any permanent advantage, it would be the party that stood on true American ground. This is a wise answer. It shows high and noble appreciation of the philosophy of political controversies. There can be no mistake in steadily maintaining American principles which have been in vogue for a hundred years, against the passions or interests of any unenlightened and prejudiced locality."

The State Journal of the 6th, comments on the election of Mr. Bennett, as follows: "The election of Hon. John R. Bennett, of Janesville, as Judge of the Twelfth judicial circuit, composed of the counties of Green, Jefferson and Rock, is set down as certain by nearly, if not quite 3,000 majority. There was a strong effort made to defeat Mr. Bennett, by the circulation of slanderous charges against him, but his reputation both as an able lawyer and a man of the strictest honesty and integrity of character was too well established to have these trumped up charges materially affect the vote. That Mr. Bennett will make a very able, competent and faithful judge, the State Journal has not the slightest doubt, and it feels like congratulating the people as well as the legal profession of the Twelfth circuit for the excellence of their choice of a candidate and their fitness and unanimity in supporting him at the polls."

Professor John W. Hoyt, of this State, who was for several years secretary of the agricultural society, was appointed Governor of the Territory of Wyoming. His commission will expire in a short time, and he is now in Washington looking after reappointment. He has given most excellent satisfaction in that Territory, and before the Legislature adjourned, a resolution was passed by a unanimous vote of the Council and Assembly, recommending his reappointment and instructing their delegate to use his exertions to that end. This gratifying action was supplemented by a personal assurance of members that it was not a mere form of encouraging the Governor to take an interest in having his commission renewed. This indication of confidence was the more acceptable from the fact that the Legislature is Democratic, and the Governor is a pronounced Republican. The Republicans of Wisconsin will sincerely hope that Governor Hoyt will be reappointed.

The Jefferson County Union, speaking in regard to an important decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, says:

In 1857 the town of Koshkonong issued bonds to the amount of $50,000, in aid of what is now the Northwestern railroad. These bonds were of the denomination of $1,000, payable in twenty years, each with interest coupons attached. In the course of time, all the bonds were taken up by the town, except two, the ownership of which for a long time could not be ascertained. Finally they were discovered to be lodged in the hands of one Oscar A. Burton, of Vermont. Negotiations were entered into for their payment, but owing to the fact that Mr. Burton demanded not only the face of the bonds and interest, but interest on the interest as well, negotiations were blocked. The town supervisors took counsel of Hon. L. B. Caswell, and offered $5,000 for the bonds. This offer was rejected. Finally they wrote to inquire if it would take $6,000, but he still refused, demanding $10,000, like the full interest. This the town refused to pay, and suit was commenced in the United States Circuit Court at Madison in May, 1880, for $8,400 by Mr. Burton. In this court Mr. Caswell appeared for the town, and set up the plea that the coupons were simply notes given for interest, and as such, were subject to the Statute of Limitations which barred payment after six years. The case was decided against the town, and an appeal to the United States Supreme Court was taken. The position taken by Mr. Caswell as attorney for the town, was a new one, and all the lawyers of his acquaintance believed he would not succeed. Strong in the belief that the doctrine was a sound one, he prepared for the Supreme Court a powerful argument in support of the theory that the owner of the bonds was barred by the Statute of Limitations from taking interest beyond six years previous to the time the action was commenced. The Supreme Court sustained him on every point taken. The amount obtained in judgement in the circuit court was $8,400 with costs.

This decision is of immense importance to other cities and towns. The city of Janesville is defending a suit on bonds, also issued in 1857, and hundreds of other cities and towns like Kenosha, and Watertown and Waterloo, in this county are greatly interested in the effect of this decision. It will learn holders of bonds that they cannot lay back as did this Burton until near the time the bonds become due, and then claim interest on interest for the full life of the bond. If they expect to keep their interest coupons alive, they must present them for payment within six years after due, or they are forever barred. By the successful prosecution of this suit, Mr. Caswell has proved himself to be one of the foremost lawyers of the State, in the breadth, soundness, and certainty of his legal judgment.

TELLER AND CHANDLER.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The nominations of Senator Teller and Mr. Chandler to the positions of Secretaries of the Interior and Navy, did not cause much comment to-day, because the matter had been discussed so long beforehand and was so confidently expected. The new Secretaries are received as a matter of course, and everybody is satisfied. There are some who predict that Chandler will be rejected by the Senate, but there does not seem to be any reasonable doubt of his confirmation. It is true he was rejected when nominated by President Garfield for Solicitor General, but that was because he was too good a politician to suit the Democrats in that position.

GOLDEN'S LIEBIG'S LID QUIBEEF and TONIC INVIGORATOR is admirably adapted for females in delicate health. Golden's no other. Of druggists.

SELF-MURDER.

MANITOWOC, Wis., April 6.—Carl Schroeder, a cabinet-maker of this city, committed suicide this forenoon by hanging himself in his own cellar. He first attempted his life by cutting the arteries of the wrist, but failing in this, he ended his days as above stated. He leaves a wife and five children. No cause is known for the act.

Solomon K. Noble, Deselm, Ill., says: "I suffered for years with itching piles, and was unable to find relief until I commenced the use of the most excellent of all healing compounds, Cole's Carbolisolve. It has worked wonders for me. I have found it to be the best of all salves for cuts, sores and anything that needs to be healed." Sold in 25 and 76 cent boxes.

THE INDIANS.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The new secretary of the interior gave expression to his views on one point of the Indian question to-day, that indicates a modification of Secretary Kirkwood's policy. He was asked what he thought of the allotment of lands in severalty to the savages. Said he: "The allotment in severalty I do not regard as practicable, except in cases where the Indians are partly civilized. It is no use to put wild Indians on land parcelled out to them, because they will not stay on it if we do. They do not want a lot laid off for themselves, because they do not realize the worth of it. If Indians are somewhat civilized, so as to know the value of land and what it can be made to produce, and then are broken into work, they may do to them a farm; but the wild Indians do not want a farm, and won't stay on it if it is given to them." It is believed that the Indian policy under the new secretary will be characterized by more firmness in practical dealing with the savages than for some years. He has been among them, and has had experience with the worst of them in Colorado.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs strengthening and cleansing to prevent an attack of Ague, Biliousness or Spring Fever, or some other spring sickness that will ruin you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait. See another column.

THE COUNT BILL.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Presidential-count bill, which passed the Senate without amendment, provides that the Presidential electors to each State shall meet and give their votes the second Monday in January next following their appointment, at such places as the Legislature of the States may direct; that each State, pursuant to its laws existing on the day fixed for the appointment of electors, may determine, prior to the meeting of the electors, any controversy concerning the appointment of all or any of them; that such determination shall be conclusive evidence of their lawful title, and shall govern in the count by Congress; that no electoral vote or votes from any State from which but one return has been received shall be rejected except by the affirmative votes of the two houses; that if more than one return is received from a State the votes of those electors appointed by the lawful tribunal of the State shall be counted, and in the event of a question as to which of the two or more of such State tribunals is the lawful tribunal, the vote of the electors appointed by that tribunal which the two houses, acting separately, shall decide to be the authorized one, shall be counted; that in case of an undetermined contest between two or more sets of electors of a State, those votes shall be counted which the two houses, acting separately, shall decide to be the lawful electoral votes. The bill also provides that if the counting of votes shall not have been completed before the fifth calendar day next after the first joint meeting of the two houses, no recess shall be afterward taken by either house until the counting is finished.

OLD MAN BENDER.

St. Louis, April 6.—The police authorities here believe that they have at last captured old man Bender, the Kansas butcher. His arrest was made last Tuesday afternoon, but the police have kept the affair secret.

The circumstances of the arrest are as follows: Herman H. Green, a German, who resides in this city, was formerly a private in the Sixth United States Infantry, and in 1871 was stationed at Osage Station, Kan., seven miles from which point John Bender and family resided. He saw Bender several times every week, as the latter brought his vegetables to the camp to sell, and knew him well. Last Monday he saw three men in a skiff on the river in North St. Louis, one of whom he declared to be John Bender. The police were informed, and the men were arrested. Two of them gave the names of August Kleets and Charles Hammond. The man supposed to be Bender gave the name of John Baels. His two companions stated that they lived in Osage county, Mo., and had been down the river, intending to go to Arkansas. They met the old man, who called themselves Baels, a few weeks ago, and he wanted to accompany them, and finally they consented. Kleets and Hammond were released, and Baels has been in confinement since. Green is a man of good character and antecedents, and the police believe his statement. Developments are expected.

The Color and Lustre of Youth are restored to faded or gray hair by the use of Parker's Hair Balsam, a harmless dressing highly esteemed for its perfume and purity.

A good cement to close the cracks in a cast-iron stove can be made out of wood ashes, sifted very fine, mixed with an equal quantity of pulverized clay and a little salt. Moisten with water to make a paste and fill the cracks when the iron is cold. The cement will not peel nor break nor become very hard after heating. It is also good to fill the joints in stove pipes when they are required to be tight.

CAREFUL experiments with locomotives have proved that a brick arch in the fire box, as well as a baffle plate within the smoke box, are both very economical appliances. They save coal and prevent throwing fire. It has also been found by experiment upon one of our leading railroads, that fifty-four per cent. of the heat produced by combustion is put directly into the boiler, and can be accounted for.

It Is Worth Remembering

that nobody enjoys the nicest surroundings if in bad health. There are miserable people about to-day with one foot in the grave, when a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic would do them more good than all the doctors and medicines they have ever tried. See adv.

Spotted Tail's Joke.

One day Captain Lee was talking with Spotted Tail, the murdered chief, and others about honest people, and the keeping of one's word. "There's no such thing as an honest man," said the Captain, jokingly. "I used to be, however. In former times honest men always used to have a bunch of hair growing in the palm of their right hand. I don't see but a few bunches in my hand."

Spotted Tail stepped up to him, and shaking hands with him, said: "How! How! I used to have a great big bunch of hair in the palm of my hand but it has all been worn off by shaking with the whites."

HINTS ON HOUSE-CLEANING.

A little spirit of turpentine added to the water with which floors are washed prevent the ravages of mottos.

When carpets are well-cleaned, sprinkle with salt and fold; when laid, strew with slightly moistened bran before sweeping. This with the salt will freshen them up wonderfully.

Fuller's earth, mixed to a stiff paste with cold water, spread on the carpet and covered with brown paper, will, in a day or two remove grease spots. A second application may be necessary.

Spirits of ammonia diluted with water if applied with a sponge or flannel to discolored spots on the carpets or garments will often restore the color.

A paste made of whiting and benzine will clean marble, and one made of whiting and chloride of soda, spread and left to dry (in the sun if possible) on the marble will remove spots.

Use kerosene, or bath-brick, or powdered lime, to scour iron, tin or copper; wash in hot suds, and polish with dry whiting.

To give glass great brilliancy, wash it with a damp sponge dipped in spirit, then dust with powdered blue or whiting (tied in a thin muslin bag), and polish with a chamois skin.

A flannel cloth dipped into warm soapsuds and then into whiting and applied to paint, will instantly remove all grease and dirt. Wash with clean water and dry. The most delicate paint will not be injured, and will look like new.

One pound of green copperas dissolved in one quart of boiling water will destroy foul smells. Powdered borax scattered in their haunts will destroy cockroaches.

Plaster of Paris mixed with gum arabic water makes an excellent white cement, but must be used immediately, as it hardens quickly. A mixture of five parts of gelatine to one of acid chromate of lime applied to broken edges, which should be pressed together and exposed to the sunlight, makes an insoluble cement.

To whiten walls, scrape off all the old whitewash and wash the walls with a solution of two ounces of white vitrol to four gallons of water. Soak a quarter of a pound of white glue in water for twelve hours; strain and place in a tin pail; cover with fresh water. When melted, stir in the glue eight pounds of whiting, and water enough to make it as thick as common whitewash. Apply evenly with a good brush. If the walls are very yellow, blue the water slightly by squeezing in it a flannel blue bag.

To clean whiting, wash with a solution of one pint of salt to four gallons of water, and wipe dry immediately.

To clean oilcloth, wash always with warm milk. Once in six months scour with hot soapsuds, dry thoroughly, and apply a coat of varnish. They will last as long again.

To remove spots from furniture, take four ounces of vinegar, two ounces of sweet oil, one ounce of turpentine. Mix and apply with a flannel cloth.

MISCELLANEOUS.

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP.

Before jumping off a precipice that may cause you a loss of from $10.00 to $20.00, wouldn't it be wise to spend a few moments looking for a smooth pathway that would let you down easy. We know just what we are talking about and are telling the plain and unvarnished truth, when we state that eight out of ten persons can be perfectly fitted with as stylish and durable suits of clothes at our store for $20.00, as they can get made "to order" for $30.00. We have the exclusive sale in this city of the acknowledged best clothing made, which eight years of handling has demonstrated to our satisfaction as being superior in every respect to the majority of garments turned out of shops in Janesville. We do not claim to fit every one, but can thoroughly satisfy any ordinary proportioned man or boy who will afford us the opportunity.

DO NOT BE PREJUDICED! BUT COME IN AND SEE OUR Spring Suits!

and if we cannot make you thin as we do there is no harm done. It takes but a few minutes time and may save you that many dollars. SMITH & SON. One Price Square Dealing Clothiers.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

"When," exclaims the Boston Gazette, "shall we again behold a parallel to that grand and venerated quartette—Emerson, Longfellow, Whittier and Holmes?"

—Mme. Marie Durand, who has been singing with great success at the opera-house in St. Petersburg, is an American. She was the widow of Major E. V. M. Hitchcock, of Vermont, and is now married to an Italian gentleman.

—Judge Davis boards at the National Hotel, Washington, where his sitting-room reminds one of an Illinois law office. There is no carpet on the floor, a large wood fire crackles and blazes on the hearth, the chairs are capacious, with rush seats, and at night candles supply the light.

—Major-General Ramsey, U. S. A., retired, who recently celebrated in Washington the eightieth anniversary of his birthday, was, it is said, the first child vaccinated in the United States north of the Potomac. The virus for his arm was sent from London by Dr. Jenner himself. —Chicago Tribune.

—The Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker, who divides with the Rev. C. H. Spurgeon the distinction of being the most popular preacher in London, is fifty-two years old. He is a man of powerful physical structure, and is fond of athletic sports. In social conversation he condenses what he has to say into a few words as possible, but in the pulpit he expresses his thoughts more freely. —Chicago Times.

—"My Wife and My Wife's Sister," one of the latest issues in the No Name series, is a Newport book, and its authorship, now that the secret is out, surprises every one. It was written by Miss Kate P. Wormeley, who is at present in Venice. Miss Wormeley is the daughter of an English aristocrat. —Boston Post.

—Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, is a man with respectable white side-whiskers. His style is lucid, smooth and classical. It is entirely without color or warmth, and when he becomes impulsive he is simply bitter, incisive and intensely cold, and his declamation is like a hail-storm. Senator Hoar has an idea that in being classical in style he is without faults. He is as cool as ice. —Chicago Tribune.

—Henry Bergh, as recently described, is a very tall, thin gentleman, with black hair, so carefully arranged as to merit the description of being "plastered down" to his head, a black mustache, perhaps a little gray, rather small eyes concealed by his eye-glasses, over which arched heavy eyebrows. He was carefully dressed in broadcloth, with a gay necktie, heavy gold watch-chain, a seal ring upon the forefinger of one hand, and upon his coat glistened and sparkled a golden decoration of no mean dimensions, encrusted with diamonds.

—Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, who came into the Vanderbilt family by marriage, is the only lady of the name who is admitted into the inner circles of fashion in New York. It is acknowledged that William K. Vanderbilt will, in time, buy his way into the "set," which declined invitations to his reception recently. His mistake was in inviting by widespread people whom he didn't know, instead of gradually working his way among them. He cannot run Fifth Avenue as if it were the New York Central Railroad, or get up a "corner" on the exchange of fashion. —Boston Gazette.

HUMOROUS.

—Too Too is the name of a new post-office in Alabama.

—I want one of those long felt hats, papa," said a pretty girl to her father. The indulgent father forked over the money, and her head now fills the long felt want.

—"Color-Hearing." A correspondent writes to ask us whether the following question has anything to do with this interesting scientific theory—namely: Are the Blue Books intended to be Red?" —Punch.

—Young man, only three per cent. of the tillable land in Kansas is under cultivation. There is, you will perceive, no necessity for you leaning against the sunny side of a brick block, hereabouts. Kansas is the place for you. —New Haven Register.

—A lady who had been traveling in Italy was asked by a friend how she liked Venice. "Oh! very much, indeed," was the reply. "I was unfortunately enough, however, to arrive there just at the time of a heavy flood, and we had to go about the streets in boats."

—A young lady, who is learning to play on the piano, wrote the following note to her music teacher, a few days ago: "Dear Mrs. —, I wish to be Excused from Taking a Lesson until a Week from 2 day as we will Bee Co Buizzzy and I won't have Time 2 Praktee." —Indianapolis Sentinel.

—A Royal Hunt for Food: Last week the Court Circular informed us that "Her Majesty laid Bagshot after luncheon." "Aunt Towzer thinks it 'scandalous' that the Queen of England couldn't have luncheon provided for her, but had to leave Bagshot and go 'after' it." —Funny Folks.

—They were out sleighing. "Gussie, dear," said she, as she leaned a tender cheek on his manly checked ulster, "why are these snow-flakes like your mustache?" This pleased him, even to have it noticed. "I don't know, pet," he murmured innocently. "Why are they?" "Because they are slow coming down." He drove with both hands after this. —Harvard Lampoon.

—Servant-ladyism of the period: "Please, mam, I shall want the dining-room this afternoon as I expect company, and I intend going out to take a walk with a gentleman friend of mine about three o'clock." "Very well, Jane, in that case you had better take Timoleon and Evangeline with you." "Me, take them with me! take your children out to walk with my company! do you think I am going to be taken for a nurse-girl? not very much, mam; you can take them out yourself." —Chicago Tribune.

—She was just arranging to settle down comfortably on Alphonso's shoulder, and Al's eyes were contemplating her with that rapture which is the top dressing of a loving and susceptible nature, when the parlor door opened and her younger brother, the pride and hope of the family, poking his head in, exclaimed: "Sallie, I've got one this time that you can't guess." His sister was an amiable girl, and always humored him, so she kindly asked: "Well, Poncey, let's have it." "What's the difference," he asked, "between you and a butterfly?" "As neither Sallie or Alphonso's face betrayed much on the subject of the conundrum, Poncey fired the answer off at once: "'Cause a butterfly has powder on its wings, but you always have it on your face.'" —Brooklyn Eagle.

HOME, FARM AND GARDEN.

—Broil steak without salting. Salt draws the juices in cooking. Cook over a hot fire, turn frequently, searing both sides. Place on platter, season to taste.

—Never fold a gossamer, water-proof inside out; it is the inside which should be kept free from soil of any kind. If you think it is superfluous advice, please observe the manner in which most of your acquaintances fold them. —N. Y. Post.

—A good wash for currant and gooseberry bushes is one pint of salt and one pint of soft soap added to ten gallons of water. Put plenty of ashes (coal or wood) around the roots, which will insure increased size.

—To clean an old pork barrel, making it fresh and sweet, fill it with fresh earth. After two or three days empty this out, invert the barrel and burn under it some bits of cloth saturated with sulphur or brimstone. —Home Treasure.

—Select your garden seeds from the list of a reliable seedsmen. It is just as easy to raise first-class vegetables as poor ones. A great many complain that they do not like vegetables. No wonder. Any one would dislike a majority of the vegetables raised. —Chicago Inter Ocean.

—Horse-radish sauce is preferred by some people to the plain grated radish. Take two tablespoonfuls each of made mustard and white sugar, half a teaspoonful of salt, one gill of vinegar. Beat these together, and pour over as much grated radish as it will moisten sufficiently.

—When the common large salt cod-fish is used chop it into pieces suitable for the saucepan, and whether steeped in water first or not, always pour off the first water as soon as it boils and fill up with plenty of fresh water. This takes away the rank taste. Good codfish balls cannot generally be made with the mashed potatoes left from dinner because of the moisture in them. The article properly made is rather dry and has a perceptible flavor of good black pepper. —Chicago Herald.

—One of the nicest recipes for cake is here given. A pleasing peculiarity of it is that it obviates the necessity of having more than one kind on the table: One coffee cup of sugar, three-quarters of a cup of butter, two cups of flour, the whites of five eggs, three spoonfuls of baking powder, flavor with vanilla. Take from this one large tablespoonful; bake the rest in two cakes as for jelly cake. To this tablespoonful add half a cup each of chopped raisins, chopped citron, of flour and of molasses; two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon, and half a teaspoonful of cloves. Bake this in one layer. Put the cake together with soft frosting, putting the fruit layer in the middle. The top may be frosted or not, as you please. —N. Y. Post.

Grinding Corn in the Ear.

In reply to a question whether it pays to grind the cob with the corn for feeding stock, the National Live Stock Journal says: "This question comes for an answer very often. It depends upon the facilities for grinding and the kind of stock to be fed. Sheep grind corn better than cattle, and therefore they utilize the nutriment in whole corn better. The cob contains more actual nutriment than is generally supposed. It shows, on analysis, 42.6 per cent. of carbohydrates, 1.4 per cent. of albuminoids and the same of fat. It is quite safe to say that cobs have one-half the value of hay, when fed with good rich in nitrogen, which it so greatly lacks; and when the cob is ground fine in burr mill-stones there is nothing injurious to animals in it. There is much said about the danger of feeding cob-meal, but there is no foundation for this prejudice. When the cobs are ground fine with the corn, it must certainly be in a much better condition for feeding than corn in the ear, when cattle swallow a large part of the cob without masticating it any more than is necessary for swallowing it. Yet the cob does not pass in anything like the proportion the grain does; and while millions of cattle are fattened every year in the West on ear corn, sensible people will not be alarmed at the danger of feeding well-ground cobs."

Where mills are prepared for grinding cobs, it will pay to grind in the ear, as, in addition to the nutriment in the cob, it saves shelling, and the cob mixed with the meal separates the particles of meal, so that it goes into the stomach in a more porous condition; the gastric juice thus penetrates it more perfectly, and the meal is digested better than when eaten alone. The writer fed five work-horses upon cob-meal, mixed with cut hay, for several years, and their health remained excellent.

We do not wish to convey the idea that corn cobs of themselves would be worth grinding, but corn in the ear can be ground whole as cheaply as corn can be shelled and ground; and, if the farmer is short of coarse fodder, there can be no doubt that it is wisdom to grind cob and all."

Raising Sunflowers.

The sunflower promises to be popular among fashionable people on account of its gaudy yellow color, which is admired by the Queen of England and her numerous disciples. Last season sunflowers sold at Saratoga and Newport for twenty-five cents each for decorative purposes. It is fortunate that the sunflower has become fashionable. Farmers may not be able to dispose of the blossoms at the rate of three dollars per dozen, but if they will allow them to mature they can realize considerable from their seed. There is no more desirable food for fowls than sunflower seed, and it is questionable if any other food can be produced at so little cost. Many farmers in Michigan have raised sunflowers as a field crop, and reported it as a paying one. They cut off and cured the leaves for fodder for horses and cattle, and found them to be possessed of the medicinal virtues ascribed to the leaves of the common resin-weed of the prairies. If places where fuel was scarce the stalks were cut at the proper length and used instead of stove-wood. They light easily and produce much heat. The ashes left in the stove are superior for soap-making or for fertilizing purposes. The seed, which is very easily gathered, is fed to fowls. For use in winter the heads are tied up a short distance from the ground, and the fowls pick out the seed. This furnishes exercise and prevents the seed from being wasted. It may not be profitable to engage in the culture of sunflowers as a field crop, but there is profit in raising them in places where other crops will not be grown. They may be planted to good advantage on pieces of ground where hay and straw stacks have stood, on land too broken to be plowed and cultivated to advantage, along the line of fences, and on the sides of roads. They do best when each stalk stands at some distance from the others. —Chicago Times.

A Cough, Cold, or Sore Throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrhs, and the Throat troubles which singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and all ways give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25c a box everywhere. mar17-tue-thur-fri-3wly

A POPULAR TONIC.

For Weak Lungs and Consumption. No preparation ever introduced to the American public for the relief and cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Debilitated Conditions, Weakness of the Lungs, or Consumption in the incipient or advanced stages of the disease, has ever met with the endorsement of physicians and patients as the celebrated "Tolu, Rock and Rye." The repeated and continued sales of the article everywhere are the best evidence of its real merits. Letters and testimonials from every quarter of the country, attesting the stimulating and healing effects, are in possession of the proprietors, and can be added to convince the most skeptical reader of its intrinsic value. Further commendation is unnecessary and superfluous, as a trial of this article, having a pleasant taste and agreeable flavor, will satisfy all those who are afflicted with any form of pulmonary weakness of the relief to be secured by the use of Tolu, Rock and Rye.—Chicago Times. dec12daw15

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of vitality, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to JAMES JOSEPH T. DODD, Station D, New York City.

Portions of the apron at each end of the dam have been washed away by the high water, and other evidences of weakness exists. Many of those interested predict that the dam cannot long stand the great pressure of water upon it, while others are confident that no immediate danger exists. Should the dam give way during the present high water, considerable damage would result from the sudden overflow in this city.

—The vote for City Treasurer at the late election was 1607, Mr. Haselton receiving 1606 instead of 1567 as previously published. James Church received the only scattering vote. Mr. Haselton feels highly gratified at this unanimous endorsement, one which few mortals who meddle with politics in large constituencies realize. The people of Janesville have ample guarantee that the confidence they repose in Mr. Haselton will not be betrayed.

—The Galbraith Brothers, well known over the United States as breeders and importers of draft horses, are still doing quite a business. Mr. Burgess, the purchaser of the famous "Glencoe," made the boys a visit yesterday, and was so well pleased with the appearance of their stock that he purchased from them the beautiful dappled bay stallion named "Honest Tom," at a handsome figure. Mr. Burgess says that "Glencoe" has pleased him past his expectations, and that the fabulous price of $5,000 would not entice him to part with the horse.

—The Gazette acknowledges a pleasant call this morning from J. W. Cole, of the firm of J. W. Cole & Co., Black River Falls, Wis., proprietors of the celebrated veterinary carbolic salve, one of the best remedies for cuts, wounds, cracked heels, scratches, etc., ever used for the treatment of horses so afflicted. They also manufacture a fine carbolic toilet soap, which has no superior. Mr. Cole has arranged with our druggists for the sale of these goods and parties purchasing them will not regret trying them. They are No. 1.

The funeral of the late Oscar Brooks, was held this afternoon, at the home of his son, William Brooks, on River street, at two o'clock, and at All Souls church at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. G. W. Lawrence officiating. The funeral was attended by a large number of the friends of the deceased, among whom were a large number of the members of the fire department, with whom he had been associated in the Washington Engine company, while engineer and foreman of that company. Messrs. R. P. Young, John Kelley, Thomas Mahon, A. W. Bauman, A. W. Reddy and John McDonald acted as pall bearers. Appropriate music was sung by Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Prichard, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Church. Miss Ada Pond, organist. The remains were interred in Oak Hill cemetery.

THE ADJOURNED COUNCIL.

An Order for a Special Election in the Third Ward on the 17th.

An adjourned meeting of the common council was held at the City Hall last evening—Mayor Lovejoy in the chair and all the Aldermen in their seats except Ald. Hemming.

The Clerk read a recommendation for side walks in the First Ward. Referred.

Also the report of the municipal court for the month of March, and the official bond of John Kelley as First Assistant Engineer of the fire department. Referred to judiciary committee.

Ald. Fitzgibbon reported that the report of the municipal court was correct, which was placed on file.

On motion of Ald. Murdock, the recommendations of the street commissioner relating to sidewalks in the First Ward, were adopted.

On motion of Ald. Robinson, from the judiciary committee, the official bond of John Kelly was approved.

On motion of Ald. Fitzgibbon, the street commissioner was instructed to report to the council all outstanding bills against the city and the several wards, together with a list of all property in his hands belonging to the city.

Ald. Nowlan, from the judiciary committee, reported the result of that committee's canvass of the vote of the recent charter election. The report only differed from that already published in the Gazette, by giving the scattering votes in the different wards, and making the vote of City Treasurer Haselton 1606, instead of 1567 as originally published. The report was adopted, and on motion of Ald. Fitzgibbon the candidates having a majority, were declared duly elected.

Ald. Nowlan introduced an order, ordering a special election for Alderman in the Third Ward, to be held on the 17th inst. Adopted.

Ald. Cox moved that the vote of the last meeting by which the Denning case was postponed for two weeks, be reconsidered. Adopted—all voting aye except Fitzgibbon and Robinson.

Ald. Norris moved that the action of Rescue Hook & Ladder company, in relation to Mr. Denning, be confirmed, and his place in that company as a member be declared vacant. Adopted. All voting aye except Ald. Fitzgibbon.

John Ose was confirmed as a member of the Hook & Ladder company, vice Denning, removed.

The council adjourned until the 17th inst.

PLANTS in bloom to-morrow for Easter at Heimstreet's.

"Immense Success."

"The Black Diamond" will be given by Forbes' Combination at Myers Opera house, on Saturday evening. The Chicago Tribune said of the company and the play, a short time ago:

"Charles Forbes' Combination drew another large and enthusiastic audience last evening, and will continue to do so all the week. We have never had a drama in the city that has created a greater furor. It abounds in sentiment in exposing the tricks of political intrigue, and should be witnessed by all. The plot is excellent and the acting superb. Taking it altogether it made an immense hit in this city."

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many homes, and that their systems need cleaning by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. Fanchon the Cricket.

The Grace Cartland Combination will appear at the Opera house on Monday night, for a season of three nights, opening with the beautiful play of Fanchon, the Cricket. In speaking of the play and the actors, the Hartford Courant says: "This play is intensely interesting, and as performed last evening could not fail to give satisfaction. The acting of Miss Grace Cartland in the title role have never been surpassed in this town. Her conception of the character is perfect, and her acting throughout natural and charming."
